MORE than a MILLION people are expected to queue to pay their respects to the late Queen as she lies in state at the Palace of Westminster over the next four days.

Arrangements have been made for a FOUR-MILE queue to snake along the River Thames all the way from Westminster to Southwark.

Train companies have announced that services will operate throughout the night to bring the vast numbers of mourners to London from all over the country.

Port in a storm over pay strike

WORKERS at the country's biggest container port are to stage another eight-day strike over pay.

Members of the Unite union at Felixstowe will walk out from 7am on Tuesday, September 27 following a similar stoppage last month.

Unite general secretary Sharon Graham said Felixstowe and its owner, CK Hutchison, are "eye-wateringly wealthy", adding: "Rather than a fair pay offer, they have instead attempted to impose a real-terms pay cut."

More than 1,900 workers walked out last month in the first strike to hit the Suffolk port since 1989.

The port said: "We are in the process of implementing the 2022 pay award of 7% plus £500."

Unite said its members had rejected it by 82% on a 78% turnout.

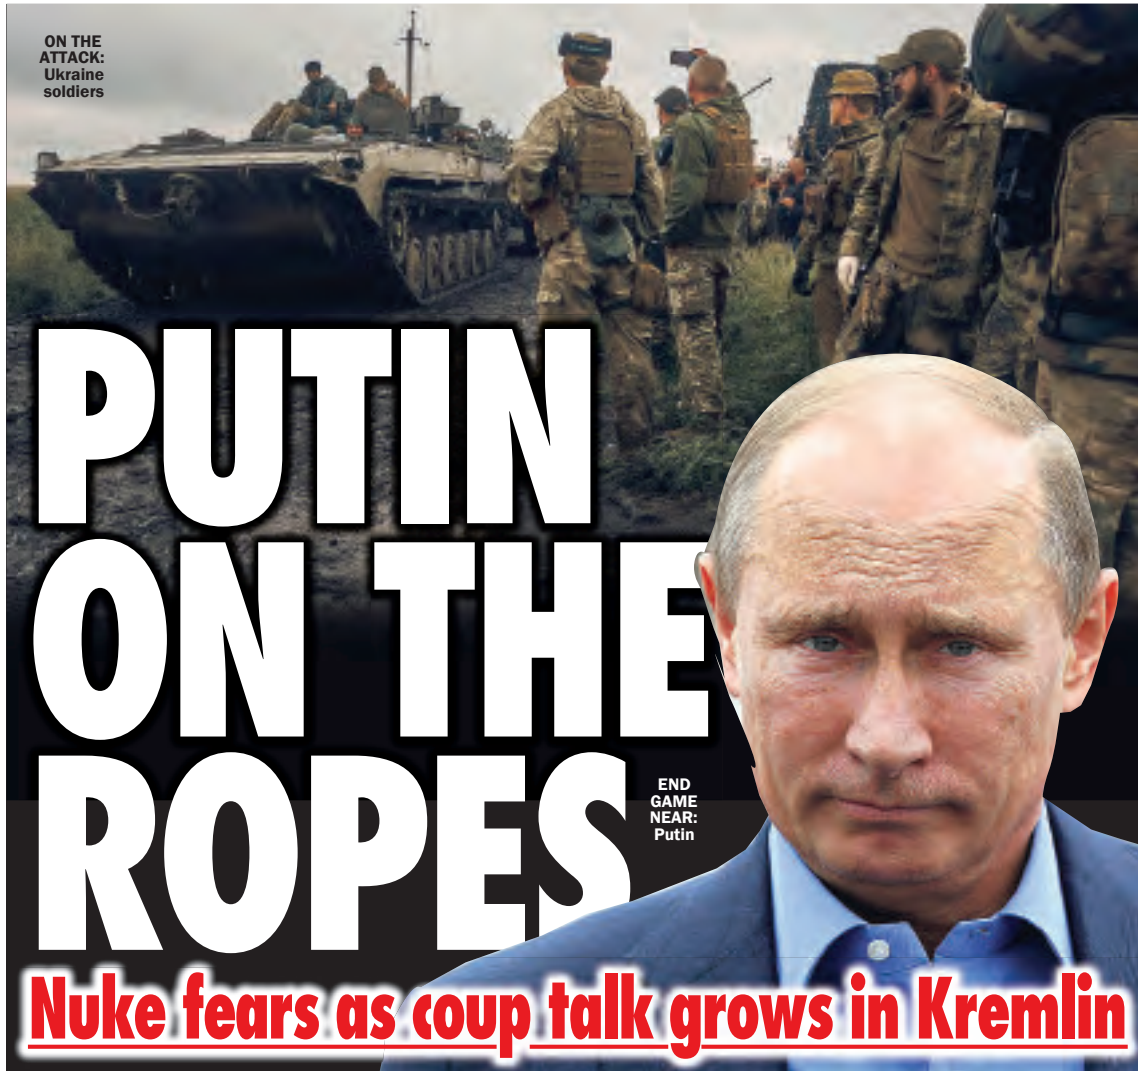

Family food bill up £571

CONSUMERS are now paying a record £571 more on average for their groceries than last year.

Grocery price inflation hit 12.4% during the past month, up from last month's record of 11.6%, Kantar reported.

The figure means the average annual bill will increase from £4,610 to £5,181 if consumers do not change products.

Milk, butter and dog food are rising particularly quickly, at 31%, 25% and 29% respectively.

ON THE ATTACK: Ukraine soldiers

PUTIN ON THE ROPES

END GAME NEAR: Putin

Nuke fears as coup talk grows in Kremlin

FOR the first time in 20 years as ruler of Russia, there were whispers last night that Vladimir Putin may be losing his grip on the Kremlin.

It comes as a massive Ukrainian offensive hits Russian troops, driving out and HUMILIATING the invaders.

Ukraine forces have seized more territory from Russia in their counter-offensive, their president has said.

Volodymyr Zelensky said troops have now retaken more than 2,300 square miles from Russian control in September, in the east and the south.

Russia has admitted losing key cities in the north-eastern Kharkiv region, in what is seen by some military experts as a breakthrough in the war.

Moscow describes its troop withdrawal from the region in as a "regrouping" with the aim of focusing on Luhansk and Donetsk in Ukraine's east. That claim has been ridiculed

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

even in Russia, with social media users describing the stated pull-out as "shameful".

US Secretary of State Antony Blinken said Ukrainian forces had made "significant progress" in their counter-offensive, but added that it was too early to predict the outcome.

"The Russians maintain significant forces in Ukraine as well as equipment and arms and munitions. They continue to use it indiscriminately against not just the Ukrainian armed forces but civilians and civilian infrastructure as we've seen," Mr Blinken said.

Russian President Vladimir Putin ordered a full-scale invasion of Ukraine on 24 February. Russia still holds about a fifth of the country.

In his late video address,

President Zelensky said: "From the beginning of September until today, our warriors have already liberated more than 6,000 sq km of the territory of Ukraine in the east and south". "The movement of our troops continues," he said.

Mr Zelensky thanked brigades involved in the counter-offensive, describing their fighters as "true heroes".

Terrifying

Defeat on the battlefield would be a disaster for Putin. If he loses, it would only be a matter of time before he is removed or even MURDERED in a Kremlin coup.

But there are fears that cornered Putin may resort to NUCLEAR weapons to halt Ukraine's counter-offensive.

If he does, it would be the first time nukes had been used in a European war and a terrifying new development that may trigger a full-scale nuclear exchange.

In growing signs that Putin was losing his iron grip on Russia, the scale of Moscow's latest humiliation has been acknowledged by those backing its invasion.

Vitaly Ganchev, a Kremlin-installed official, told Russian TV "the situation is becoming more difficult by the hour".

He added: "If we talk about the force that was transferred to the counter-offensive of the Ukraine army, it outnumbered our troops by about eight to one, no less."

"In order to preserve our personnel, it was decided to withdraw, regroup."

On the state-backed NTV channel a three-strong panel on a prime-time debate also acknowledged the rout.

"It is impossible to defeat Ukraine," said ex-MP Boris Nadezhdin.

Community order for COVID MP

AN MP who travelled by train despite knowing she had COVID has been ordered to carry out 270 hours of community service.

Margaret Ferrier spoke in parliament in September 2020 while awaiting the results of a test.

She then took the train home to Glasgow after being told she had tested positive.

Ferrier had pled guilty to culpably and recklessly exposing the public to the virus.

The charge stated that she had failed to self-isolate and had "exposed people to risk of infection, illness and death".

Prosecutors told Glasgow Sheriff Court that her conduct had shown a "reckless disregard of public safety".

Ferrier was an SNP MP at the time of the offence, but subsequently lost the party whip and has been sitting in the Commons as an independent.

Victim's family angry with cops

THE firearms officer who shot dead Chris Kaba in London should have been suspended much sooner, the victim's family says.

The officer fired a single shot at the 24-year-old rapper, who was unarmed, in Streatham Hill on 5 September.

Mr Kaba's family welcomed the suspension, but said there was "no urgency" around the investigation.

The Independent Office for Police Conduct has opened a homicide inquiry.

Mr Kaba's cousin Jefferson Bosela told the BBC the Met should have suspended the officer as soon as the investigation was launched.

AND A BIT OF GOOD NEWS, AT LAST Jobless total LOWEST since 1974

THE UK unemployment rate fell to its lowest level since 1974 in the three months to July, official figures show.

The jobless rate fell to 3.6%, say the Office for National Statistics (ONS).

However, the squeeze on pay remains, with rises in regular pay failing to keep up with the rising cost of living.

When taking the rise in prices into account, the value of pay fell by 2.8%, the ONS said.

Inflation remains at a 40-year high of 10.1%. The latest inflation

One reason for the fall in the unemployment rate is a rise in the number of people who are no longer looking for work, and so not counted in the figure. The inactivity rate rose to 21.7%, the highest since 2017.

Other measures suggest the jobs market might be beginning to turn. The employment rate and the number of vacancies fell slightly in the latest figures.

"The jobs boom that began six months after the pandemic is probably coming to an end now," James Reed, chairman of recruitment business

Reed, said. "There are still very large numbers of vacancies and people are still advertising a lot of jobs, and that's why unemployment is down."

"The question is, what happens next? Will there be a jobs slump? That's a concern clearly but our data at the moment doesn't suggest that, because we've still got a large number of vacancies and a lot of employers are still struggling to recruit."

As film star is set to wed for FIFTH time

PAT'LL DO NICELY!

SMITTEN: Patsy and Patric

NUDDY SCENE:
 Patsy in 2003's Shelter Island

PEA advert star Patsy Kensit is set to marry for the fifth time after becoming engaged to a new fella after a five-week whirlwind romance.

The 54-year-old actress is rumoured to have accepted a proposal from her property tycoon boyfriend, Patric Cassidy, after he got down on one knee during a romantic meal out last week.

Multi-millionaire Patric, 58, is thought to have been introduced to Patsy by mutual friends.

A source said: "This has been a complete whirlwind romance.

"The pair are smitten, and it just feels right. He popped the question at Scott's in London, and afterwards celebrated at the nearby Connaught hotel where he bought everyone champagne.

Heart

"They've only officially been together a matter of weeks but Patsy is going with her heart."

The actress first got married in 1988 when she was 22, to Dan Donovan, from 1980s pop group Big Audio Dynamite, before they split in 1991.

A year later, she married Simple Minds front man Jim Kerr, who reportedly has a FOOT-LONG cock.

But they divorced three years later.

During this marriage, she gave birth to her first son James, in 1993.

Patsy and Oasis star Liam Gallagher married in Marylebone Town Hall in 1997 and had a son, Lennon, two years later before divorcing in 2000.

It took nine years before she walked down the aisle again, this time marrying Nineties DJ Jeremy Healy.

They split just a year later.

A pal of the blonde beauty said: "She must like wedding cake, or something."

'Pet' kangaroo kills keeper

AN Australian man has died after being attacked by a kangaroo he had been keeping as a pet, police say.

A relative found the 77-year-old with serious injuries at his home 250 miles south of Perth. When paramedics arrived, the kangaroo attacked them too.

Police were forced to shoot the Roo dead. The man died at the scene.

Wills and Kate plan Aussie trip with kids

THE new Prince and Princess of Wales could tour Australia early next year, and may even take their kids.

It is understood the Palace is looking at plans for Royal family members to travel to as many realms – countries where King Charles III is also head of state – and leading Commonwealth nations as possible next year.

They would formally accept condolences on the death of the Queen.

William and Kate (above) toured Oz in 2014 with a baby Prince George.

In addition to the UK, Charles now rules in 14 Commonwealth countries – Antigua and Barbuda, Australia, The Bahamas, Belize, Canada, Grenada, Jamaica, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Solomon Islands, and Tuvalu.

A trip the new King and Queen were due to undertake next month to a Commonwealth country is now 'doubtful' with a coronation to plan and pressing affairs of state.

More trains laid on for mourners

TRANSPORT bosses have confirmed that extra train services will be running for people travelling to London to pay their respects to the Queen.

A limited service will run through the night on some routes.

Demand is expected to be heavy from today, when the public can attend the lying-in-state at Westminster Hall from 5pm.

The Rail Delivery Group said it was doing "all it can" to ensure smooth journeys during the period of mourning.

The industry body, which represents train firms, told customers to check journey planners for the most up-to-date information.

The Queen, who died on Thursday aged 96, will lie in state in Westminster Hall for four full days before her funeral, meaning the public will be allowed to view her coffin.

Network Rail said a normal timetable would be running on the day of the funeral, rather than a reduced one that might operate on a regular bank holiday, along with some additional services.

HM Queen Elizabeth II: A MILLION THANKS

MORE than a MILLION people are expected to line up to pay their respects to the late Queen as she lies in state at Westminster Hall.

Members of the public started to arrive on Monday to secure their place in the historic queue, which will snake for FOUR MILES from an assembly point at Southwark Park, along the River Thames to the Palace of Westminster.

For each of the next four days, hundreds of thousands of people will file past the coffin on its catafalque and pay their respects, just as they did for the Queen Mother lying in state in 2002.

Those wishing to pay their respects will be able to file solemnly past the Queen's coffin 24 hours-a-day from 5pm today until 6.30am on Monday, the day of the funeral.

Well-wishers have been told to expect "very little opportunity to sit down as the queue will be continuously moving".

Visitors will only be allowed to bring one small bag with them, smaller than 40cm x 30cm x 20cm, and have been told to dress for the weather and bring refreshments.

Pictures

People are not allowed to film, take pictures or use their phones inside the Palace of Westminster.

Large crowds are expected to attend, with delays on public transport and road closures anticipated.

Security staff manning the queue route to Westminster Hall said yesterday that crowds are expected to swell ahead of this afternoon.

Government guidance also set out guidelines on how people should behave, saying they should remain silent inside the Palace of Westminster.

It also urged people to "dress appropriately for the occasion to pay your respects", banning clothes "with political or offensive slogans".

"Please respect the dignity of this event and behave appropriately. You should remain silent while inside the Palace of Westminster," it added.

Queue-jumpers and anyone drunk will be booted out of the queue by stewards and police patrolling.

What will happen today

THE Queen's lying in state is expected to begin in Westminster Hall, following a ceremonial procession through London that will begin at Buckingham Palace at 2.22pm.

The King will walk behind the gun carriage carrying his mother's coffin to Westminster Hall, in the Palace of Westminster, marking the second time he has walked behind her in three days.

The coffin, adorned with the Imperial State Crown, will be transported on a gun carriage of Visitors will also face airport-style security checks, with tight restrictions on what can be taken in.

Senior Royals are also expected to pay their own moving tribute, standing guard at some stage around the coffin – the tradition known as the Vigil of the Princes.

When the Queen's coffin lay in state at St Giles Cathedral in Edinburgh, the King, the Duke of York, the Princess Royal and the Earl of Wessex all stood vigil.

Thousands queued to pay their respects in the Scottish capital.

The first person arrived to queue for the Queen's lying in state in London on Monday – more than 48 hours before the lines open.

Vanessa Nathakumaran, 56, from Harrow, appeared at 12pm on Monday to the south of Lambeth bridge.

Ms Nathakumaran, who is staying at a hotel in Lambeth so she does not miss the opportunity to pay her respects, said she began "admiring the Royal family" from the age of 10 and has "a huge respect for them".

The administrative assistant, who grew up in Sri Lanka before moving to the UK to study in the 1980s, said her great uncle, Sir Vaithilingam Duraiswamy, was knighted by King George VI for services to Sri Lanka, when it was called Ceylon.

And her daughter, Praveena Nanthakumaran, met the Queen as an air cadet.

"I'm really proud that our family got involved in some of the Queen's life and the start of her reign," she said.

Ms Nathakumaran said that when she started working in London she got "so interested in English culture and the Royal family and Government that I always wanted to pay my respect".

Monday's funeral will echo that of the Queen's father, King George VI, who was laid to rest in 1952.

The last state funeral held in Britain was in 1965 for Sir Winston Churchill, who was granted the rare honour thanks to his service to the country during the Second World War.

The King's Troop Royal Horse Artillery from Buckingham Palace.

The King, members of the Royal family, and senior staff of the late Queen and King's households will walk slowly behind in a dignified silence without music in a route that will take 38 minutes.

On arrival, the coffin will be placed on a raised bier where the Queen will lie in state for four days.

The Archbishop of Canterbury will then conduct a short service following the coffin's arrival.

Charles met by applause on NI visit

KING Charles III arrived in Northern Ireland yesterday to raucous applause as he warmly welcomed well-wishers and heads to a church service honouring his late mother on the latest leg of his tour of the United Kingdom.

The jet carrying His Majesty touched down at the George Best Belfast City Airport shortly before midday for his 40th visit to the province – his first as King, and his saddest.

Clad in black, the new monarch (above) and Queen Consort shook the hand of official dignitaries before departing for the historic village of Hillsborough, to meet mourners outside the official royal residence.

The royals were met with huge roars of approval as they exited their blacked-out BMW and started their walkabout, grabbing onto outstretched hands, accepting flowers and speaking with those who turned out to greet them.

Chants of "God Save the King" could be heard from the crowd as the new sovereign paused to inspect a sea of floral tributes.

Arrests of protestors 'concerning'

THE arrests of anti-monarchy protestors after the death of Queen Elizabeth II are "deeply concerning", free-speech campaigners have said.

Police in Scotland have arrested two people in recent days, while a man was arrested and de-arrested in Oxford.

The arrests came at events to mark the Queen's death and proclaim King Charles III Britain's new monarch.

In London, as queues began for the lying in state, the Met Police said people "have a right to protest".

On Sunday, a 22-year-old woman was charged in connection with a breach of the peace after being arrested during an accession proclamation for the King outside St Giles' Cathedral in Edinburgh.

Ruth Smeeth, of Index on Censorship, said the arrests were "deeply concerning", adding: "We must guard against this event being used to erode the freedom of expression that citizens of this country enjoy."

A promise made and kept for life – that was your gift

POET LAUREATE PENS VERSE TO MARK MONARCH'S PASSING

THE Poet Laureate has written a poem to mark the death of Queen Elizabeth II.

Floral Tribute, written by Simon Armitage, describes the coming of a September evening and the appearance of a lily as "a token of thanks".

The lily of the valley was one of the late Queen's favourite flowers, appearing in her own coronation bouquet in 1953.

Earlier this year, Armitage wrote another poem, Queenhood, to mark the Queen's Platinum Jubilee in June.

In the first stanza of Floral Tribute, Armitage writes of: "A promise made and kept for life – that was your gift."

The poem employs the form of a double acrostic, meaning the first letter of each line spells out "Elizabeth" when taken together.

FLORAL TRIBUTE by Simon Armitage

EVENING will come, however determined the late afternoon,
Limes and oaks in their last green flush, pearled in September mist.
I have conjured a lily to light these hours, a token of thanks,
Zones and auras of soft glare framing the brilliant globes.
A promise made and kept for life – that was your gift,
Because of which, here is a gift in return, glovewort to some,
Each shining bonnet guarded by stern lance-like leaves.
The country loaded its whole self into your slender hands,
Hands that can rest, now, relieved of a century's weight.
Evening has come. Rain on the black lochs and dark Munros.
Lily of the Valley, a namesake almost, a favourite flower
Interlaced with your famous bouquets, the restrained
Zeal and forceful grace of its lanterns, each inflorescence
A silent bell disguising a singular voice. A blurred new day Breaks uncrowned on remote peaks and public parks, and Everything turns on these luminous petals and deep roots,
This lily that thrives between spire and tree, whose brightness
Holds and glows beyond the life and border of its bloom.

Swimmer lost in swamp for THREE DAYS after attack

A MAN survived for three days in a swamp after an alligator ripped off his arm while he was trying to swim in the lake.

Eric Merda, 43, from Sarasota, Florida, was visiting the Lake Manatee Fish Camp in Myakka City when he became lost.

He said he came upon the water and decided to swim across, adding: "I look over and there's a gator on my right-hand side. She got my forearm so I grabbed her... she was trying to roll by."

Eric was then dragged underwater three times, but he fought back and eventually the alligator left – with his arm.

Snapped

He said: "She snapped her head so my arm went backwards."

He managed to swim to shore in agony and yell for help.

"Bones poking out... muscles... if I tried to move my fingers, you could see it twitching," Eric added.

He walked for three days until he found a fence and saw a man who he asked for help.

Eric said: "I told him a gator got my arm. He said, 'Holy smoke!'"

The rescuer said that although Eric was in a lot of pain he still walked to the ambulance when it arrived.

Merda was then flown to Sarasota Memorial Hospital, where doctors had to amputate the POLICE are investigating after a NAKED man drove his car into a suburban swimming pool.

Cops said the male driver needed to be removed from his car by witnesses after he drove through a fence and into a swimming pool in Bundall, Queensland.

The man, 27, from Southport, who is thought to have undergone blood tests after he was taken via ambulance to Queensland University Hospital, has not been arrested or charged with any offences.

A police spokesman said: "We're not yet sure if he's just a larrikin or a great galah."

"We reckon that he's gone troppo, but we've got to see if maybe he just had a few too many tinnies at the barbie."

SEX MISS SHAGGED TEEN PUPIL

A SCHOOL Miss who was once nominated for teacher of the year has been held on multiple sex acts charges, including shagging a pupil.

Amanda Doll, 37, was taken into custody by officers from the Johnson County Sheriff's department and slapped with charges including unlawful sex, sex act with a student, and indecent liberties with an underage person.

She was also sacked from her English teacher role at West Johnston High School in Benson, North Carolina, the same day she was arrested.

She is currently being held without bail at the Johnston County Detention Centre.

Outstanding

Doll was previously one of 33 first-year teachers recognised and nominated for this year's Outstanding First Year Teacher for their outstanding performance in the classroom.

School officials said Doll had only worked at the school since May last year and she started as a substitute teacher before she was moved to her last role.

This is the third time in a 12-year period that staffers at the high school have been held for lewd and criminal behaviour.

In 2010, Michael Lance Britt, 38, a band director at the school for seven years, was charged with sexual exploitation of a minor and sexual offences involving two students. Britt had sex with at least one 17-year-old student and took explicit pictures of the pupil, authorities said.

He pleaded guilty to the sex crimes and served 45 days in jail.

In 2011, Todd Fair, 40, a ex school-based cop at West Johnston High School sent inappropriate photos to a student.

He pleaded guilty to a count of disseminating obscenity to a minor under the age of 16.

Fair, a 10-year veteran with the Johnston County Sheriff's Office, was sentenced to three to four months in prison, and was suspended to 18 months on probation.

After the incident, Fair had to surrender his law enforcement certificate and no longer was allowed contact with the student.

Stunned

A former student of West Johnston High School, who graduated in 2019, and who chose to remain anonymous, was stunned when he learned about Doll's recent behaviour.

He said: "I really don't know what's going on at that school. I feel like they should be doing something to crack down on that."

False kidnap dad charged

A MAN who falsely claimed his six-month-old baby was in the backseat of his stolen vehicle, to get a quicker police response, is now charged with a crime himself after authorities were sent scrambling to find the "missing" child.

Anthony Ray Gray, 38, is charged with filing a false report after the child was found unharmed in a relative's home.

The Harris County Sheriff's Office in Texas said deputies responded to a report of a stolen vehicle with a baby inside at a petrol station. The father had got out of his Jeep and left it running.

He said he had his child in the backseat after two men got out of their Kia Optima, got into the Jeep, and drove off.

NEIGHBOUR KILLER FLED SCENE NAKED

A WOMAN was arrested naked and covered in blood after she killed her neighbour, police say.

Cynthia Ming was taken into custody after Lacy Lakeview Police Department, Texas, officers responded to a break-in call.

Angie Moore, the woman who called cops, told them she "had a gun" and was going to use it.

Upon arriving, officers found Ming trying to leave the property through a window. She was naked and covered in blood as she tried to flee.

Ming was shot with a Taser but continued in her attempt to get away before she was detained.

Blood

Inside the home, officers found Ms Moore in a pool of her own blood, determining that Ming had shot her with Ms Moore's own gun.

Ming (left) admitted she'd "grabbed the gun from her" and "shot her in the head".

She told cops she "murdered her" due to Ms Moore "killing her dog," the affidavit read.

Tommy Lee takes todger to OnlyFans

ROCKER Tommy Lee has joined OnlyFans after working out that Instagram probably isn't the best place to share his nude pics.

Social media users have seen quite a lot of the Mötley Crüe drummer (above) recently after he started sharing explicit photographs online.

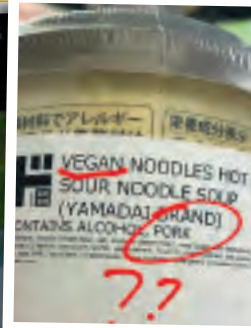

Tommy, 59, went totally naked on Insta at one point, with his full-frontal nude pic staying on his profile for hours before the platform removed it.

Not one to disappoint those eager for more, however, the musician has decided to join subscription site OnlyFans where folk pay for content, much of which is sexual.

Realising he could make money off his adult content, instead of sharing it freely with his 1.6million followers, Tommy announced at his Las Vegas show that he would be posting on the site.

STORM STUPOR

AN adventurer had to be rescued by firemen after he aiseiled 85ft down a storm drain in Minneapolis and got stuck. It's not known why he went down it.

ON the face of it, Donna Roberts and Robert Fingerhut were the perfect couple. But scheming money-grabber Donna always wanted more, and she committed murder most horrid to get her mitts on her husband's £500k life insurance pay-out...

BATTERED, SHOT...

WELL OFF: But Roberts wanted to cash in on Fingerhut's life insurance

WHEN Donna Roberts was found guilty of husband Robert Fingerhut's slaying in 2003, the wickedness of her actions finally seemed to dawn on her.

She turned to the jury and openly told them to give her a death sentence, shrugging: "It's the right thing to do."

And having listened to the harrowing details of Roberts's sick plan, those jury members were well within their rights to agree.

Roberts had embarked on a steamy 14-month affair with criminal Nate Jackson before the pair conspired to have Fingerhut brutally killed so they could cash in on his £500,000 life insurance policy by making it look as though he had been the victim of a carjacking.

This mild-mannered, generous bus depot owner was battered and tortured inside his garage, before being dragged inside his house and shot at point-blank range in the back, chest and head.

And, in a final and heinous act of indignity before he breathed his last, Mr Fingerhut was forced to watch as Roberts performed oral sex on Jackson as the woman he'd been with for 20 years committed the ultimate act of betrayal.

Throughout her trial, Roberts claimed mitigating factors – she'd had a tough upbringing, she'd been in a bad car accident and suffered injuries that affected her judgement, and she'd had suicidal thoughts.

But the judge saw through her excuses and lies.

Roberts's son, Michael Fingerhut, is in no doubt about the true character of his stepmum.

During the trial, Roberts had callously turned to Michael, pointed at the banks of TV cameras and said: "They're all here for me, Michael!" as if relishing her new-found fame.

Speaking in 2014, Michael said: "In the 40 years I've known Donna, she never claimed a head injury."

"My father was a good man. He gave prisoners a job. He gave prisoners a bus ticket so they could visit their families."

Prejudiced

"He didn't look down on people. He was probably the least prejudiced person on the planet."

"My father is more than just a dead body. He was a person that people cared about."

"She, on the other hand, was pure evil."

"When my father was killed, we didn't even know about it until after he'd been buried."

"When the detective told me, 'Your dad's dead', my first thought was 'Donna'."

Roberts, now 78 and incarcerated on Death Row, had grown up on a farm in rural Youngstown, Ohio.

As one of five kids, she claims she "never got any attention or affection", saying: "I always felt empty."

While her statements have been proved to be untrustworthy, Roberts says she saw her father both physically and verbally abuse her mother, and suggests she was raped by her cousin as a young girl.

In 1966, she married William Raymond and moved to Miami, Florida, where she had a son.

The marriage ended in divorce in 1971.

A year later, Roberts wed Burton Gelfand, but that relationship fell apart in 1980.

By 1983, she married Robert Fingerhut and moved back to her home town in Ohio.

The pair officially divorced in 1985 but friends and family say it was purely for financial reasons.

Fingerhut wanted to protect their assets in case his business was sued or collapsed. So for many years after their 'split' Roberts and Fingerhut were, to all intents and purposes, happily married.

He regularly referred to Roberts as his "wife" and doted on her like any husband would.

The pair were well off, too, earning around £150k-a-year between them, with Roberts also

MY TURN TO DIE: Roberts told jury to give her death sentence running a local diner. But there was trouble brewing...

At some point in 2001, Roberts, then 58, met and began a sexual relationship with petty crook Nate Jackson, 44, behind Fingerhut's back.

She was besotted, despite the fact Jackson was several years her junior.

Witnesses in the small town told how they'd seen the pair kissing in public and even booked themselves into a motel suite for illicit romps.

Fingerhut must have sensed his wife was slipping away from him, so he sought to restrict her movements by giving her less access to his money.

Pal Frank Reynolds told how he'd overheard Roberts ask Fingerhut for £2,500. When he refused, Reynolds said Roberts was "shaking with rage" and giving him "the dirtiest look".

Despite toyboy lover Jackson being sent to prison in 2001 for a string of burglaries, the vile lovebirds began hatching a terrible plan in a string of letters and phone calls.

One letter from Jackson to Roberts, dated October 2001, read: "Donna, I got it already planned out on how we are gonna take care of the Robert situation – and baby, it's the best plan ever!"

Cash

"Because, Donna, it's now time that we really be together so that we can really see the true side of our love."

"I'm tired of not being able to be with you."

Roberts, angry at not being able to use Fingerhut as a cash cow, had written back: "You know you can always count on me – you always could."

"It'll just be a little tougher now because he only gives me £80-a-week for everything and he makes me write checks to keep track of it all.

"I haven't even been allowed to use any of my 52 charge cards. He says they're for emergency only."

"I'm not used to living like this. I'm used to having plenty of cash for whatever I want and buying everything I want."

"Maybe those days will return again soon."

"Do whatever you want to him ASAP. Amen."

Jackson and Roberts grew ever more brazen, dreaming of how they'd spend Fingerhut's life insurance money.

Jackson scribbled: "I told you I'm tired of living like this when I don't have to."

"After we're done, will you get me a 2002 Cadillac Deville? Even if I gotta come to the house and shoot Robert in his fking head, you're gonna be with me."

Roberts, meanwhile, secured the murder kit. She replied: "I went to four stores and finally found your ski mask, boxers and a pair of beautiful fleece-lined black leather gloves."

Authorities at Lorain Correctional Institute, where Jackson was being detained, recorded telephone calls between the couple.

Court records show:

MONSTERS OF DEATH ROW

THE WORLD'S MOST EVIL MURDERERS AND THE HORRIFIC CRIMES THAT SAW THEM SENTENCED TO EXECUTION...

MAN WITH A PLAN: Jackson plotted with lover Roberts to kill her husband

"In recorded phone conversations between Jackson and Roberts during November 2001, they continued to discuss what Jackson planned to do to Fingerhut."

In one conversation on November 8, 2001, Jackson told Roberts that he wanted Fingerhut to see Roberts performing oral sex on Jackson before Fingerhut "goes away".

And on December 11, 2001, just two days after Jackson was released from prison, Fingerhut was mercilessly executed.

The first cops knew of it was when Roberts called 911, telling them: "There is something wrong with my husband."

That was something of an understatement.

Trumbull County forensic pathologist Dr Humphrey Germaniuk told how Fingerhut had sustained "lacerations and abrasions to his left hand and head, as well as multiple gunshot wounds to his head, chest and back".

The damage caused by the bullets from a powerful .357 Magnum handgun had literally ripped Fingerhut's face to shreds, leaving him in a pool of his own blood.

Tears

Police officers quickly spotted his wife was acting erratically, with one detective noting: "I didn't see any tears coming from Roberts's eyes when she appeared to be crying."

Police then learned that Jackson and Roberts had been spending time together at a Days Inn hotel in the days following the murder.

They combed that hotel room for forensic evidence – and hit the jackpot.

Investigators found used bandages and traces of Fingerhut's and Jackson's blood.

By 2001, both Jackson and Roberts had been indicted on two counts of aggravated murder.

In 2002, Jackson was found guilty and a jury recommended the death sentence.

Roberts continued to plead her innocence through her subsequent trial the following year, saying she had never meant to instruct Jackson to kill Fingerhut, that she'd only been acting out "fantasies".

She said: "I never intended for that to happen. I still can't believe it."

But her unpersuasive behaviour in court helped seal her fate.

She moaned about the "young inexperienced" jury, while whingeing: "I had everything. Now I have nothing."

"But the most important thing I don't have is Robert. Oh, and my two little girls..."

She then showed the jury photographs of her two dogs.

On June 21, 2003, Roberts was finally handed a death sentence of her own.

FACILITY: The Cooper Street Apartments in Glens Falls

LOONY BIN MANAGER SCREWED NUTCASE

CHARGED: Lauren Andrews (right)

THE boss of a home for mentally-unstable homeless folk has been arrested for SHAGGING one of the inmates.

Lauren Andrews, 31, of Fort Edward, New York, was charged after she was accused of engaging in sex with a resident of the Cooper Street Apartments in Glens Falls.

Because of his mental problems, the man she shagged is deemed incapable of consent and so Andrews faces a rape charge.

The incidents are said to have occurred in June this year.

Force

There is no accusation that she used force to engage in sex, according to Glens Falls Police Department.

At the time of the alleged incident, she was employed as an assistant coordinator at the 29-unit complex, which opened in 2021.

The facility is run by the Warren-Washington Association for Mental Health and provides apartments for people dealing with serious mental illness, youths who are homeless, and others experiencing homelessness, according to its website.

CEO Andrea Deepe said that Andrews is no longer employed by the agency, but would not comment further.

Andrews is facing additional charges from the Washington County Sheriff's Office involving the same victim.

Andrews appeared in Glens Falls City Court and was released on bail pending further action.

UNLIKE many of us, gorgeous Angelica Kitten got away to the sun this summer.

But she wasn't having fun, you understand, she was working pretty damn hard.

The 32D beauty, from Croydon in south London, said: "I bet loads of people think that being a model is easy, but there's a lot more to it than meets the eye."

"It's not just a matter of standing there, pouting for the camera."

"We have to get up really early and we shoot for up to 12 hours a day."

She added: "That said, we were staying in a gorgeous villa in Greece and it beats my old job working in a supermarket!"

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

So why do these vile trolls think they can do this?

IT took only seconds.

Moments after last Thursday's announcement that the Queen was gravely ill, the termites began to skitter out of the woodwork.

Their destination was social media, where you can't say anything about anyone remotely right-on, hell no, but the rest of us are fair game.

Chief among them was a woman called Uju Anya, who has a blue "confirmed" tick next to her Twitter handle and is thus "recognised".

As most of the world received the news of our ailing monarch with a feeling of dread, she fished out her mobile and posted this: "I heard the chief monarch of a thieving raping genocidal empire is finally dying."

"May her pain be excruciating. That wretched woman and her bloodthirsty throne have fked generations of my ancestors on both sides of the family."

"And she supervised a government that sponsored the genocide my parents and siblings survived."

"May she die in agony." You might think Anya was some typical uppity young leftie student acting up like they all do until they get jobs and grow up.

But no. Anya is an associate professor of modern languages at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Twaddle

Unsurprisingly, she specialises in "diversity, equality, and inclusion in instructional methods, curriculum design, and applied linguistics as a social justice practice".

Anya also teaches "intercultural communication, and service-learning and civic engagement in secondary and university-level language programs".

In other words, she's paid to peddle nonsensical twaddle.

And she feels able to tweet vile nonsense, too, knowing that as a woman of colour from the left she can spout any old shit in the knowledge that she's highly unlikely to be admonished by social media overlords.

All this took place while the Queen was, according to Buckingham Palace, supposedly "comfortable" in Balmoral, while in reality she was dying in bed.

Later, an hour after the Queen was officially declared dead, the former Manchester City footie player Trevor Sinclair decided to upload his own pearl of wisdom to Twitter.

OFF AIR: Sinclair

He posted: "Racism was outlawed in England in the 60s & it's been allowed to thrive so why should black & brown mourn!! #queen."

At last Talk Sport had the good sense to pull pundit Sinclair off air – hopefully for good, but we'll see.

His Twitter account was also deactivated.

But why do they do this?

Why can't a single thing take place – especially something as huge as the Queen dying – without "progressives" having to pour their vicious bile over it?

It's as if they get up out of the wrong side of bed every single day, ready and willing to be angry about something or anything.

It's almost certainly bad enough to lose your mother, grandmother and great grandmother in the first place without an entire planet rubbernecking the sad event.

How much worse to know there are trolls out there – some who even teach youngsters – who hold such views but, worst, feel emboldened to loudly project them.

If Twitter had been in existence when Nelson Mandela died, imagine if something similar had been posted about him by a knuckle-dragging extremist?

The hypocrisy is staggering.

And it's all the more staggering because wishing an "excruciating" death on a 96-year-old woman is apparently fine to post publicly.

But get someone's pronoun wrong? Off to the gallows you go...

Exhibitionist told stranger he was Devil

A NAKED loon broke into a house, woke the occupant and told her: "I am the Devil!"

Officers from the Muncie, Indiana Police who were in the area responded and quickly located a man who matched the description given and detained him.

The arresting officer said Michael Donohoo, 58 (above), was wearing just a towel and sock.

When asked why he was walking around in a towel, Donohoo said it was a "bucket list" item of his to live as an exhibitionist for a week.

"Donohoo advised he had been walking around naked in the area, and stated he had done it a couple times before," the officer said.

He also told police the door to the house he'd entered had been unlocked and he went inside, to the bedroom, where the victim was in bed. He said he touched the back of the victim's leg, above her knee, and told her to wake up.

Donohoo was booked into the local jail and later released on bail.

Soldier's social media contact with extremists

A SOLDIER in the US Army wrote on Instagram that he joined the military "for combat experience so I'm more proficient in killing" black people, investigators claim.

Killian Mackeithan Ryan had five Instagram accounts that were in contact with others "associated with racially motivated extremism".

Ryan's social media activity is documented in a case filed last month in the US District Court in North Carolina accusing him of providing false information on a security clearance form to serve at Fort Bragg.

The case comes at a time when the US military is trying to purge its ranks of extremists and white supremacists.

Just this week, the names of more than 100 current military members appeared on the leaked membership rolls of a far-right extremist group accused of playing a key role in last year's insurrection at the US Capitol.

A BARE-KNUCKLE boxing babe who famously flashed her BOOBS after winning a bout is sponsored by one of the world's top PORN STARS!

Tai Emery is backed by bum-sex beauty Kendra Lust and has paid tribute to her sponsor.

Emery went viral last week for baring her breasts after her stoppage victory over Rung-Arun Khunchai at the BKFC Thailand 3 venue in Bangkok.

The Aussie jumped on the ropes and lifted her top for the entire world to see.

Antics

Her celebration spread like wildfire across social media.

Kendra wrote on social media: "Congrats Tai Emery on your win. Was a pleasure to sponsor you and the best celebration in any sport after the win."

Tai, 35, replied: "Thank you for believing in me and supporting me in a time where my image wasn't accepted!"

"You kept me training, fed and put a roof over my head to get me to fight.

"I will always march in the Lust Army as a soldier."

Emery's antics have seen her OnlyFans subscribers multiply by a huge 6,150 per cent.

When asked if she had reaped the rewards of her flash, she told TMZ: "Holy moly."

"My OnlyFans went maybe 40 to maybe 2,500, or something like that."

BKFC chiefs had no issue with Emery's x-rated celebration, which they proudly shared on their social media channels.

She said: "I have been completely enabled to continue to be myself, and so I shall."

Emery plans to bare her chest whenever she wins after the roaring success of her celebration.

When asked if she'd show skin again, she replied: "For sure."

"I'm trying to get it to a point where there's gonna be a sea of titties just looking back at me like this army of salute, from men to women."

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY

Dear Sam,

I'm a 36-year-old divorced woman and the other week I bumped into an old school pal I hadn't seen for 20 years.

I invited her round to my place for a meal and she revealed she hadn't made love to a man since her husband left her.

I said she must be feeling terribly frustrated but she laughed and said: "That does not mean I haven't had sex."

I didn't understand what she meant until she pushed me back on the sofa, easing my thighs apart. She pulled my panties aside and probed my pussy with her fingers and then the tip of her firm tongue.

It seemed like only seconds before I was experiencing the most powerful orgasm I have ever felt.

For the rest of the evening we sucked, licked and finger-fked each other to orgasm after orgasm.

Now I'm feeling confused. I don't know whether I've been a latent lesbian all along or whether this was just a boozy one-off.

TF, Derby

Sam says...

THIS is something you'll have to explore further with your friend.

Dear Sam,

MY mate's mum looks just like the actress Helen Mirren, except she's a bit younger than her and has got bigger tits – plus she always wears some sort of lurid pink all-in-one get-up and talks in a very broad Yorkshire accent.

Nonetheless, last week she sucked me off after we'd had a few drinks in the pub. She dragged me into an alley at the back of the boozer and whipped my rock-hard cock out.

She was pissed and took me right to the back of her throat. When I erupted in her gob, she swallowed the lot like a real trooper.

I was about to do her from behind when my mate came out of the pub to see what was going on. He was furious with us both and now he won't talk to me.

The trouble is he's got my best jumper and I need it back for a date with his sister!

HV, Leeds

Sam says...

YOU'RE having a laugh – wear a shirt!

Well-hung gym hunk gave me exhausting workout

Dear Sam,

I'M a 22-year-old single girl and I've never had much luck with the fellas.

In fact, I was a virgin until a couple of weeks ago. That's when I first went to my local gym.

I was greeted by a hunky guy who took me into the gym to show me the equipment.

Little did I know that he would be showing me his equipment a little while later!

He was soon flirting with me. I responded and he told me he wanted to shag me.

I said I'd like that and he led me to an office. He locked the door, lay me on the desk and began to lick me out.

Then he stood up and dropped his trousers – and that's when I first saw his massive cock.

When I explained that I was a virgin, he told me he'd be gentle. It was brilliant feeling him inside me and he gave me an orgasm before he withdrew and spunked his man-milk over my tits.

Now I'm thinking of letting him take me up the arse as well. Do you think I should?

TC, Birmingham

Sam says...

WOW, you're a quick learner!

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week SAM TYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

I enjoy lesbo lust more than sex with men

Dear Sam,

I'M a horny 26-year-old woman and have three lovers – male ones that is.

But I've just recently discovered I'm bisexual and now I also have a female lover.

What's more, I've noticed that a certain edge has gone off the orgasms I'm having with all my different men.

For instance, when one of my boyfriends was licking me out the other night, I kept thinking of how my new girlfriend did it so much better.

It all started when this woman started work at my firm. We had lunch one day and as we walked back to the office she started to talk about sex.

I told her how I love to have a big cock in my mouth and another in my pussy – and if it's timed right they climax at the same time.

Then she told me about all the men she has shagged. All the sex talk got me horny and she suddenly asked me if I'd tasted a woman's pussy.

I said I hadn't and one thing led to another and that evening I found myself round at her house, a bit nervous but also excited about what might happen.

We had a few glasses of wine and then she led me upstairs into her bedroom, where we both stripped off and fondled each other's breasts.

Juices

Then I lay back on her bed and spread my legs as she licked me out.

The first lick of my clit told me I was going to love it, and it wasn't long before I enjoyed my first pulsating orgasm brought on by a woman.

And when I kissed and licked her shaven pussy, I found the taste of her juices was every bit as good as a man's hot spunk.

Then we climbed into the 69 position and got to work on each other with our tongues and fingers.

I had several more orgasms before we both collapsed exhausted into each other's arms.

I had never felt so turned-on and the next evening I went to see her again. This time she used a vibro and I had another amazing orgasm.

But the next time I was with one of my male lovers I found that the orgasms were not as good.

Should I give up sex with this woman to bring back the orgasms I used to get with men?

FL, Essex

Sam says...

WHY not have a threesome and have the best of both worlds.

Dear Sam,

I WAS recently made unemployed. I'm 23, with 32DD boobs and long red curly hair – and didn't enjoy packing biscuits anyway.

Last week I was approached by a fella in a bar who said if I wanted to make some easy money, become a part-time hooker.

He said I could make a fortune from selling my body and offered me £50 to shag him.

I went to his house and he asked if he could film me in some raunchy poses.

One thing led to another and I found myself in ecstasy with this fella sucking on my clit.

Then he got out a huge dildo and suggested penetrating my arsehole as he screwed me.

I let him use it on my arse and I was soon screaming with delight.

The next day I went to his house and he called in a blonde girl.

She pulled off all my clothes and started sucking on my tits.

Pretty soon she had a dildo in my bum and was lapping at my clit. It was a real turn-on.

I asked if she was a prostitute, but she said she was his wife.

Now they both want to pay me for sex.

What should I do?

JB, Devon

Sam says...

IT'S up to you, but it's probably better than packing biscuits.

I serviced car and the horny owner

Dear Sam,

I'M a 32-year-old motor mechanic and the other day this right stunna came into my garage.

Her silver sports car had broken down but it only needed a few bunged-up plugs changing.

I told her I would have to take her motor for a spin as a final check. She joined me and I couldn't believe my luck when she invited me to her flat later.

She told me to come in my overalls and not to wash. I thought it was a bit strange, but if it meant that I was going to get a shag I was up for it.

When I got to her place my spanner was already well hard and I was revved up when she put her hands inside my overalls.

She stripped off and took my throbbing dick between her soft lips and began sucking me off expertly.

Gulped

I managed to hold on for about 10 minutes, then I released my handbrake and unleashed my love fluid and watched as she gulped it down.

She then led me to her bedroom and told me to lie on the bed while she went to her bathroom. She came back clutching a can of oil and massaged me with it.

I was soon rock-hard again and I flipped her over, slipped my drive shaft right up her crank casing and gave her a damn good servicing.

The next morning I asked for her number, but she refused and said it was a one-off. What can I do?

BW, Cumbria

Sam says...

NOTHING – I'm sure you'll soon find someone else to satisfy your sex drive.

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

KINKY Zoe Fox says the idea of going DOGGING has her frothing at the clopper!

The 30DD glamour model fantasises about having the ride of her life with her bloke in a secluded car park at night while other men watch.

Zoe, from Cardiff, said: "In my fantasy me and my fella turn off the road and end up at a dogging spot by accident."

Frisky

"Things are getting frisky and we're kissing and caressing."

"We're startled when a guy appears and stands watching us, obviously turned on."

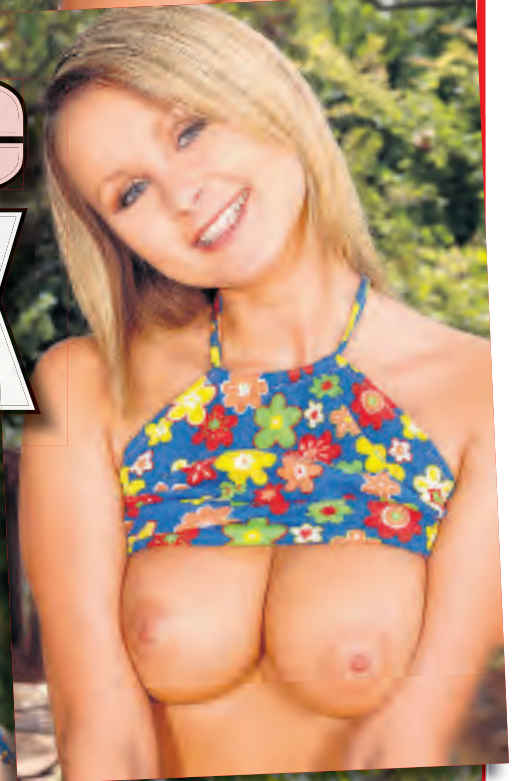

"We decide to put on a performance. More men appear and I'm loving being the star of my own amateur sex show."

"I tease them with a little flash of flesh, before revealing more of my naked body and going all the way with my man!"

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

AMANDA RENDALL

BRICKIE Tom Collins emailed us asking for a photo of glamour girl Amanda Rendall's pert norks.

The 38-year-old bricklayer, from Headingley, Leeds, wanted a photo of Glasgow babe amanda's 34Ds to show workmates.

He said: "Can I please have a photo of Amanda?"

CHARLENE HART

COFFEE barista Joel Newman served Charlene Hart at his work last week and hasn't stopped thinking about her.

Joel, 23, from Ipswich, said seeing the local stunna with her clothes on took him by surprise.

He said: "Charlene is one of my fave Sport babes, so when she strutted into the shop last week I had an instant rock-on."

"She'd got her 34Cs covered up though, so I'd love to see a topless photo to jog my memory."

SPORT STARTS HERE WITH RACING

BAYSIDE BOY

Bayside can make splash

BAYSIDE BOY appears to have been a very good opportunity in the Chasemore Farm Fortune Stakes at Sandown.

Roger Varian will still be on a high after winning the final Classic of the season when Eldar Eldarov claimed the St Leger, but he will have been scratching his head over Bayside Boy's campaign.

Having ended last season looking like one of the best juveniles in training, winning the Champagne Stakes and placed in the Dewhurst and Vertem Futurity, Varian would surely not have believed he would have reached September without adding to his record.

Ability

Having missed the 2000 Guineas due to fast ground ground he ended up in the French version, where in the end he had no chance from stall 14.

He then showed his ability still remains, when beaten just two lengths behind the ill-fated Coroebus in the St James's Palace Stakes at Royal Ascot.

Sent off favourite at Goodwood last time out, however, he took a step backwards when only fourth in a Group Three.

By MIKE FRANCIS

He perhaps was not comfortable on the track there, though, and any horse can be forgiven a run at Goodwood. So with headgear on for the first time he is taken to return to winning ways.

William Buick rides Bayside Boy and also looks to have solid claims in the following Coln Valley Stud Fillies' Handicap with I'll Be There.

Now trained by George Boughey, she has not been seen since breaking her maiden at Goodwood when with Andrew Balding, beating a 75-rated rival comfortably.

She handicaps off 78 and as the least-exposed filly in the field more is expected.

Local Dynasty looks another likely winner for Buick in the Time Test British EBF Novice Stakes as he continues his march towards a first title.

A winner on debut at Newmarket, he was thrown into the Acomb at York and sent off favourite but had no answer to winner Chaldean.

Given how Chaldean followed up in the Champagne Stakes at Doncaster at the weekend that form now has a new complexion and Local Dynasty can defy a penalty.

John and Thady Gosden's

Obelix caught a tartar on debut in the shape of Richard Hannon's Classic who fairly bolted up.

But it was a run full of promise in second and while he probably will not be seen to best effect until next season, this 300,000 euro purchase, who holds an entry in the Futurity later in the season, will take some beating in the EBF Future Stayers Maiden Stakes at Yarmouth.

The seaside track's feature of the year, the EBF Stallions John Musker Fillies' Stakes, can throw up the odd surprise.

Classy

It might be worth chancing what looks the second string from the Gosden yard in Queen Of The Skies.

Stablemate Shaara is progressing quickly, but when last seen over 100 days ago Queen Of The Skies bolted up at Chelmsford having chased home the classy Sea Silk Road on her debut.

The yard have a good record in the race having won it three times since 2016 and three-year-olds have dominated.

The best bet at Beverley looks to be Karl Burke's Tele Red in the Churchill Tyres Handicap.

He has only been out of the first two once in his last five outings.
